

A little bit about us

Virox® Technologies Inc. is a world leader in the development, manufacturing and marketing of antimicrobials. Dedicated to arming the entire spectrum of global markets with state-of-the-art, proprietary disinfectant technologies, Virox is seeking new ways to transform ourselves and our role in disinfection.

We are currently on the lookout for an Executive Director, Business Development that shares our passion for safety, sustainability, biosecurity, infection control, and education. If you're a self-starter that values teamwork, thinks outside the box, and wants to join the fight against pathogens like COVID-19, keep reading. This could be a great partnership for both of us.

The Executive Director, Business Development

The Executive Director, Business Development is responsible for defining, implementing and managing the sales and business development strategy for each channel and market segment we serve on a global basis.

A day in the life of an Executive Director, Business Development at Virox will include...

- Overseeing the development and implementation of the business development and sales strategy for our technologies in new and existing markets and regions.
- Overseeing the development and channel strategy implementation for each brand and existing market.
- Overseeing corporate partnership strategies and establishing and maintaining relationships with current distribution and private label partners.
- Developing and managing annual business development expenditure budget.
- Establishing the annual sales forecast by product, brand and channel of sale
- Leading, inspiring and motivating business development staff; monitoring departmental performance against goals and ensuring the right talent is in place to meet department objectives.
- Pitching in with projects and tasks, as they come up.

Does this sound like you?

- You have a university degree or college diploma in business administration or other relevant program.
- You have at least 10 years of senior leadership experience leading and mentoring a sales and business development team.
- You are familiar with Office 365, SmartSheet project management software or similar applications.
- You're a solid negotiator and effective communicator that enjoys building and maintaining partnerships.
- You're a strategic thinker that is passionate about growing the business, employee development and cultivating talent.
- You keep moving ahead, no matter what happens.
- You thrive in a fast-paced environment and are able to manage multiple projects and deadlines simultaneously.

What's in it for you?

- A chance to grow a sales/business development team that is committed to growing our market share while having fun.
- A chance to be a part of a team that is actively contributing in the fight against COVID-19 and other threats to biosecurity, through education and awareness.
- A chance to help the post COVID-19 world arm themselves with proper disinfection tools and know-how.
- An opportunity to experience something deliberately different, while continuing to grow, develop, and learn new things.
