

A little bit about us

Virox® Technologies Inc. is a leading research and manufacturing company, dedicated to arming the entire spectrum of global markets with state-of-the-art, patented, Accelerated Hydrogen Peroxide® (AHP) disinfectant technology.

We are constantly seeking new ways to transform ourselves and our role in disinfection and are currently on the lookout for a Digital Editor that shares our passion for safety, sustainability, biosecurity, infection control, and education. If you're a self-starter that values teamwork, thinks outside the box, and wants to join the fight against pathogens like COVID-19, keep reading. This could be a great partnership for both of us.

The Digital Editor – 12 month contract opportunity

Reporting to the Director, Corporate Marketing, the Digital Editor is responsible for managing the corporate website to enhance our corporate brand identity, as well ensuring alignment with our broader marketing strategies.

A day in the life of a Digital Editor at Virox will include...

- Project managing the website redesign to keep deadlines and goals on track, and working with our agency partners to organize, edit, and optimize existing content, help define user flows, and ensure website adheres to brand and style guides.
- Leading content and idea research, including keyword and competitor research to discover content ideas to help drive organic traffic for the corporate website.
- Creating, copy editing, and uploading web content including blogs, articles, images, and online features, and ensuring all content adheres to SEO best practices and is free of grammatical, punctuation, and spelling errors.
- Analyzing and reporting on KPIs to find ways to ensure optimal content performance to increase user engagement and retention.
- Managing website optimization, performing site updates, and working with web development agency on site upgrades as required.
- Collaborating with the Social Media Strategist to align content with the overall digital and social content strategy.
- Collaborating with the commercial marketing teams to align content where applicable, to enhance both corporate and commercial audience growth and marketing strategies.
- Contributing to the development of our YouTube strategy.
- Assisting with the management of the employee intranet, including content calendar planning and writing posts.
- Assisting in the creation, testing, and deployment of email newsletters.
- Pitching in with other projects and tasks, as assigned.

Does this sound like you?
